Term 3- Week 6 -2015

Wednesday, 19th August 2015

As the second half of the term unrolls we still have a few weeks that will keep us busy. Please remember to have your children's costumes ready for the Book Week Parade next Tuesday. These do not have to be bought or be elaborate but just represent a character from one of their favourite books. Please join your children on this day and stay to share lunch with them also. Pet Ed Program on the 2nd, please return permission notes ASAP, there is no cost attached. Please enjoy an array of photos from our Japanese Drumming day.

Dates to Remember

25th August Book Week Costume Character and Book Reviews at 11.30am

Japanese Drumming

What a great day we shared with the students and staff of Stroud Road PS last week. Our drumming session was loud, tricky and so much fun. All students did a fantastic job whilst learning about Japanese culture. Making loud noise from our stomachs and not our mouths and learning the techniques and rhythm of Japanese drumming. Thank you to Mrs Melmeth and Mrs McNiece for their Origami expertise and to the P & C for cooking the BBQ. The weather was perfect also, we definitely look forward to our next shared adventure with Stroud Road PS.

Book Week Celebrations

On the 25th August we will be celebrating Book Week. Our students usually present their speeches which they have been working on during term 3. This year the children will be presenting a book review of a book they have read and enjoyed as an alternative. As usual children will be asked to come dressed as a book character for the parade. The day will begin at 11.30 and all families are welcome to share a picnic lunch with their children if they would like to stay. Please ensure costumes are ready for this day!

Life Education Van

As usual the content delivered by the teachers of the Life Ed Van was thoroughly appropriate and at stage level. All students were delivered a program that covered all relevant topics for their ages.
